

On Saturday the 9th of December The Shire of Mundaring held its annual Thank a Volunteer day to recognise volunteers for outstanding contributions or accomplishments during the past year.

Over 100 volunteers from a wide range of volunteer organisations and their families attended. Cr Beaton said The Shire of Mundaring is striving to increase the quantity, impact and accessibility of volunteering throughout the area. It aims to raise awareness of volunteering and its value to society in all sectors, and to secure a sustainable volunteering infrastructure that promotes community involvement.

Past Citizens of the Year winners were also invited to this year's event

