EDITION 4 - 10 JUNE 2021

Change of venue for Community Well-being Forums

Dr Rob Gordon (Clinical and Trauma Psychologist) was scheduled to visit WA this weekend. As he is currently unable to travel from Melbourne the events will now be hosted online, so you can attend from the comfort of your home!

Dr Gordon will talk through how best to support yourself and others during this challenging period.

Saturday 12 June - 2pm to 4pm

In short

For clean-up updates please call 1800 328 997.

Coming soon, thanks to Rotary, Tool Libraries to be housed at Wooroloo and Giddegannup.

These are in addition to the fencing tools already available for residents to borrow.

Herbicide has been delivered to those properties who requested assistance with weed control.

A big THANK YOU to the Mundaring Camera Club for their kind donation.

And finally, thanks in advance, for the motorcycle community who are coming together to assist an ex-racer.

Fencing assistance

BlazeAid volunteers will be finishing up on 30 June and we thank them wholeheartedly for all their help over the past months.

Disaster Relief Australia are planning to return to help fill the gap and are calling for help.

Volunteers can register via https://mustr.donesafe.com/module_records/public_new?module_name_id=22

WHAT'S ON?

Connect @ Wooroloo Hall

Every Tuesday, 8.30am to 4.30pm
Thursday 10 + 24 June, 3pm to 5pm

The kettle's on, pop in! Your chance to chat to representatives from the Shire of Mundaring and other agencies. Kids can explore the games box or find a quiet corner for homework, and neighbours can enjoy a casual catch up.

Monthly Recovery Update Dinner

Thursday 10 June, 6pm to 7.30pm
Noble Falls Tavern

Bushfire affected residents can connect, share stories and hear recovery updates. Hosted by the City of Swan, Bendigo Bank Parky Care and the Noble Falls Tavern.

Fire and the Ecology

Saturday 26 June, 9am to 11am
Gidgegannup Hall, 2171 Toodyay Road

Hear Dr Mike Bamford give an ecologist's perspective on effects of fire. The presentation will be followed by a walk-through Noble Falls.

Register at www.eventbrite.com.au/e/fire-and-the-ecology-tickets-156982670393 by midday on 21 June.
